

NACM Exhibitor Guidelines General Rules and Regulations

NACM reserves the right to cancel or refuse rental of display space to any person, firm or association whose conduct or display of goods or services, is, in the sole judgment of the Board, incompatible with the general character and objective of the exhibition.

All exhibitors are restricted to firms, companies and associations whose products or services are relevant professionally to the operation of courts.

Use of the NACM logo may only be used with the expressed permission [licensing] of the Board and must conform to any style guidelines adopted by the Board.

Scope

Exhibitor agrees to abide by the NACM rules and regulations of the event. These rules and regulations are part of the agreement between the exhibiting firm and the NACM [2008 Mid-Year] Conference. The NACM Board of Directors (Board) or their designee shall have the authority to interpret and enforce these rules. All matters not covered by these rules and regulations are subject to the decision of the Board. All decisions so made shall be binding on all parties. Exhibiting firms or their representatives failing to comply with the rules and regulations may result in removal from the exhibit area.

Compliance of Exhibiting Firm

Each exhibiting firm agrees to comply with all federal, state and local laws and ordinances applicable to the space leased and also with such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary by the Board and/or the exposition facility.

Public Policy

Each exhibitor is charged with full knowledge and compliance with all laws and ordinances and regulations pertaining to health, fire prevention and public-safety as related to the exposition facility.

Operation & Conduct

The Board reserves the right to decline, prohibit, deny access or remove any exhibit which in its sole judgment is contrary to the character, objectives and best interests of the exhibition or suitable for its attendee audience. This reservation includes, but is not limited to, any violation of any public policy or these rules and regulations and extends to persons, things, printed matter, products and conduct. The Board reserves the right to refuse applications of any exhibitor for any reason, as well as the right to curtail exhibits or parts of exhibits.

The Board reserves the right to regulate and or restrict exhibits to reasonable noise and lighting levels and to suitable methods of operation and display of materials. If for any reason an exhibitor and/or its contents are deemed objectionable to other exhibitors or to show attendees by the Board, the exhibit shall be subject to removal at the exhibitor's sole expense, and the Board shall not be liable for refund of exhibit space registration and rental fees, except at its sole discretion. This includes people, things, conduct, or poor professional demeanor, which, in the sole judgment of the Board, is detrimental to the event.

The Board reserves the right to exclude from the exposition any exhibiting firm and its representatives or employees who refuse to comply with and/or correct any violation of the exposition rules. In the event it becomes necessary to restrict any installation or activity or to evict any offending exhibiting firm, the Board will not be liable for any refund of exhibit space registration and rental fees or any other expenses incurred by the exhibiting firm.
