

National Association for Court Management

Strengthening Court Professionals

NACM 9th PRESIDENT

1993-1994

JEFFREY M. ARNOLD

BOARD ACCOMPLISHMENTS

1. One main goal was to strengthen the association's role in professional development for court managers
2. Second main goal was to extend NACM's position as the leading national organization of and for court professionals by forging ties with other national organizations and participating in national projects that improve the operation and funding of courts
3. Distributed a Glossary of Legal Terms and a checklist of Security and Privacy Concerns Related to Dissemination of Automated Court Information
4. Distributed Media Guide
5. Expanded NACM's communications capabilities to include such forms of electronic communication as bulletin boards and national networking
6. With the assistance of the State Justice Institute, NACM brought high-quality, national level education to court managers who typically have been unable to attend NACM's annual education conference
7. Planned and delivered a Pacific Northwest regional conference in February 1995
8. NACM's linkage with NCSC was strengthened when the Center expanded its Board of Directors to provide an additional seat for a director chosen by the NACM Board
9. The Forum on the Advancement of Court Technology (FACT), approved a formal application with NACM at its winter meeting. FACT has undertaken a project that will develop model rules for access and dissemination of court information. This project addresses the number one priority on NACM and COSCA's national technology agenda.

10. Formed NACM's National Affairs Committee
