1. Welcome
2. Annual Conference 2022 Updates
 - Registration #'s – currently at 518 registrations. It's likely that high travel costs are affecting lower than anticipated numbers. Still working to meet the contract attrition rate at the Hilton.
 - Social event – We will have 2 trolleys providing transportation from the hotels to the museum. All attendees must wear their badges. We also have negotiated free access to the museum exhibits for all attendees.
 - Plenary Speakers – A promo video for Paul Krismer is on the registration page. Jeffrey and Jude will be meeting with Neil Ihde next week.
 - Call for Awards – Awards have been ordered for all categories and will be presented by Rick Pierce.
 - Leadership Seminar – Rick is working with NASJE on this year's Leadership Seminar and already has a number of invited individuals confirmed to attend on Sunday afternoon.
 - Hosts – The call for Hosts was recently sent out and Kent Pankey is leading the coordination again. He currently has most slots already filled.
 - Committee Meetings – Committee meetings have been scheduled throughout the day on Wednesday. People are encouraged to go to whatever meetings they can.
 - ECP Community Service Project – ECP has chosen the Milwaukee Justice Center as this year's organization. Donations can be made online or made in-person at the Tuesday evening social event. The final donation will be presented on Thursday morning.
 - ECP/1st Time Attendees Reception – Cheryl will be leading the ECP/1st Time Attendees Reception. She's currently working on an ice breaker event.
 - Fitness Activity – Kathy and Brandon are coordinating this year's fun run. Shirts will be ordered for the top male and top female runner.
 - Other – Jeffrey thanked everyone on the call for their help and participation in turning the 2022 conferences into a success.

3. 2023 Conference Themes – Rick and Jude gave a sneak preview of the conference themes for 2023. They have been working to finalize them as we prepare to launch the call for proposals this Fall.
