2019 Midyear Conference

February 10-12, 2019 - Little Rock Marriott, Little Rock, Arkansas
“Advancing Today’s Courts to Meet the Challenges of Tomorrow”

It was announced that the Midyear Conference Call for Proposals have been reviewed by a subcommittee for input. The review period ended September 28th. Simmons thanked the review committee for their assistance and time. Some subcommittee members commented about the proposals and found them to be broad enough for consideration for the Annual Conference. TJ Bement and Kathy Griffin will work with the State Justice Institute for grant funding for the conferences’ educational content. Selected proposals will be notified in October 2018.

The Midyear draft agenda is in development and will be available October 2018. Ben Barham for Arkansas shared that assistance will be available from the state associations during the Midyear.
