

Our Pledge

We, the members of the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Collaborative, pledge to share approved information and content about our initiatives to educate and inform our audiences about our charter. This pledge is intended to keep us committed to the work of the DEI Collaborative and uphold our high standards for which we stand.

Types of Content:

- Resources, technical assistance reports, bulletins
- Educational events, webinars, training opportunities
- Press releases, announcements
- Social media awareness campaigns related to diversity, equity, and inclusion

The Process:

Please send all information for sharing to deicollaborative@ncjfcj.org and include necessary information such as: title, dates, short description, links, graphics for use, logos, etc. Content will be approved internally within respective organizations for proper marketing vehicles based on audience.

Examples of Marketing Vehicles Where You Can Share Information:

- Social media channels
- E-newsletters to members, other audiences
- Websites or blog posts
