

Education Committee meeting June 2, 2022

Minutes

- I. Rick opened the meeting at 2:04 p.m. ET with a review of the minutes from the April 7 meeting. In attendance were: Norman Meyer, Kent Pankey, Jude Del Preore, Juli Edwards-McDaniel, Joe Tommasino, Courtney Whiteside, Tina Mattison, Kelly Hutton, and TJ BeMent.
- II. Jude and Rick gave a report from Conference Development. Included in Jude's report for the annual conference in Milwaukee:
 - a. Four Tracks addressing Leadership, DEI/Racial and Social Justice, Technology, and the CORE Champion program.
 - i. The CORE Champion program will include five sessions, 2 addressing Workforce Management, 1 on Operations Management, 1 on Strategic Planning and Visioning and 1 session on Educational Development- provided by CORE vice-chair Kelly Hutton. For a complete listing of all workshops that will take place in Milwaukee, click here: 2022 Annual Conference – National Association for Court Management \(nacmnet.org\)
 - b. Kent noted the host reporter requests for the conference workshop sessions will be emailed to attendees by mid-June. This is an easy and enjoyable task to get involved in the conference and NACM.
- III. Tina gave the CORE committee report.
 - a. Governance curriculum review is in final review phase. It should be completed and posted on nacmcore.org in time for the annual conference.
- IV. Rick shared the theme for 2023 both midyear and annual conferences. The theme for the year focuses on justice for all with an emphasis on addressing social and racial justice through inclusion and connection.

The themes will be posted on the NACM website following the annual conference.

- V. Rick noted the next Education Committee meeting will be Wednesday July 13 in person in Milwaukee. Following this meeting, Tina Mattison will assume the role as Chair of this committee. Rick thanked all for their efforts on this committee and their commitment to NACM.
- VI. The meeting was adjourned at 2:40 p.m. ET.
