

REASONS TO JOIN

National Association
for Court Management
Strengthening Court Professionals

National Association
for Court Management
Strengthening Court Professionals

World-class conferences at a reduced rate.

Our programs address the needs of all court types, structures, and sizes.

Periodicals addressing current issues.

Two quarterly publications delivered directly to your inbox, Court Express and Court Manager.

Free electronic guides.

Topics include Plain Language, Domestic Violence, Electronic Records Management, and many more.

Opportunities to participate in committee work.

Efforts in NACM committees and subcommittees guide the national agenda for education programs, governance, and advocacy.

Discounted memberships with our partner organizations.

This mutual benefit serves court-related organizations and state associations throughout the world, and we are always looking to add more!

Advocacy on issues of nationwide importance.

NACM can be an objective voice advocating for the needs and values of the Judicial Branch of government, without interfering with any given court's need for impartiality.

Unparalleled networking opportunities.

Active membership with NACM provides a community of court professionals during and between conferences to address issues unique to court administration.

National Association
for Court Management
Strengthening Court Professionals

www.nacmnet.org