Overview of 2020 Virtual Conferences

Kathy, Jude and Val provided an update on the overall conference and the link to register was just released. It was explained how the event would take place each Thursday until the middle of October, you will need to register for each week. There will be an Expo and various other links in the virtual lobby. Questions raised regarding not charging and how many participants can register, Val shared that we can have up to 5,000.

2021 Conference Themes

2021 First draft of the conference themes were shared. All were in favor of the draft. Kathy and Jude will finish up and it will be shared with the Call for Proposals coming out soon.

Other Business

NACM Board members on the call highlighted their respective committees and look forward to the new NACM year.
