MAKING A DIFFERENCE FOR YOU AND YOUR COURT

The National Association for Court Management is an organization committed to promoting excellence in the profession, advocating for justice related issues, improving our courts and communities and educating court professionals. As a member of NACM, you can play a meaningful role in the development of court management, while accessing the tools you need to most effectively fulfill your position in the courts.

NACM is the most progressive, professional court management association in court administration. To date, we have nearly 2,000 members consisting of court managers, supervisors, clerks, judicial officers, consultants, researchers, analysts, teachers, students and other professionals in the field. For more than 30 years, NACM members have continued to refine the profession of court administration.
