

NACM Bylaws

Proposed 2023 Amendment to Article I

Article I Explanation:

NACM's Mission and Vision are Article I of the Bylaws. During the Board's fall 2021 meeting, officers and directors discussed NACM's Mission and Vision and recommended changes to better reflect the Association's values and diversity goals. The versions currently in the Bylaws and their proposed replacements appear below.

Please note (05/03)—The mission and vision that appear in the Bylaws state only a portion of the Association's strategic values and direction. See the Strategic Plan 2023-25, accessible from <https://nacmnet.org/who-we-are/initiatives/strategic-plan/>, for more information.

Current Article I Mission & Vision

Section 1. Mission Statement. The mission of the National Association for Court Management (NACM) is to develop proficient Court Managers with leadership skills and a commitment to excellence, to support the independence and interdependence of the judiciary with other branches of government, to provide efficient and customer-oriented justice, and to promote partner-based research.”

Section 2. Vision Statement. The National Association for Court Management will continue to be a global leader in the achievement of an independent, interdependent, accessible and forward-looking Judicial Branch that is committed to excellence. NACM will provide outstanding service to its members through quality professional development, relevant publications, collegial fellowship and opportunities to participate in the organization. The core values of integrity, diversity, visionary leadership, innovation and collaboration will be reflected throughout NACM.”

All text in red below would substitute for the current text above.

Proposed Article I Mission & Vision

Section 1. Mission Statement. The mission of the National Association for Court Management (NACM) is to be an inclusive member organization dedicated to developing all court professionals as leaders, providing community, sharing information, and advocating on important court and justice system topics.

As of May 3, 2023

Section 2. Vision Statement. The National Association for Court Management will be an inclusive community, a preferred source for education and innovative practices, and a leading voice for all court professionals.