Dear Court Leader,

The National Association for Court Management (NACM), with more than 1,500 members from all levels and types of courts throughout the United States and internationally, is the largest organization of court management professionals in the world. NACM provides court management professionals with the opportunity to increase their proficiency in the field while networking with colleagues to promote a common goal - improving the administration of justice.

In furtherance of this goal, NACM will host the 2022 Annual Conference, July 10-14, 2022, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The conference theme is "Courts Leading the Way in Advancing Justice: A Call to Action". This theme will focus on the important concept that justice reform must come from within courts across the globe. Courts and court leaders must take charge of leading the way to advancing justice. Courts must envision how they can improve fairness and efficiency in the future. The Judiciary needs to lead the call to action in advancing justice and transforming their future.

This conference will emphasize the common topics of agile leadership as well as diversity and inclusion. Attendees will be given a tutorial on how to bounce back better than ever. Current world events are exposing racial inequalities and the realization that public trust and confidence in our courts has been shaken. We will explore new court roles for creating a more equitable landscape.

Conference attendees can expect to enjoy numerous thought-provoking educational sessions, organized social and networking events, and a vendor and exhibit show. For more information, including the conference agenda, please visit the conference webpage at www.nacmnet.org.

This educational opportunity is uniquely designed for court professionals. I encourage you to support your staff's attendance at the conference to develop skills that will enhance your court or that you will consider engaging with your colleagues and advancing the field of court administration by attending the 2022 Annual Conference.

Thank you for your continued dedication to the judicial branch of government and the important role you play in advancing the administration of justice.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Griffin, President
