Dear Court Leader,

The National Association for Court Management (NACM), with more than 1,400 members from all levels and types of courts throughout the United States and internationally, is the largest organization of court management professionals in the world. NACM provides court management professionals with the opportunity to increase their proficiency in the field while networking with colleagues to promote a common goal - improving the administration of justice.

In furtherance of this goal, NACM will host the 2023 Midyear Conference, February 5-7, 2023, in Minneapolis, Minnesota. The conference theme is "Preserving the Core: It's All About Justice". The global pandemic and its variants have significantly disrupted nearly every aspect of American life, but courts have been particularly impacted. By their nature, courts bring people together on neutral ground to resolve disputes. While not exactly easy, pandemic adjustments to court processes have been mostly technical. But adaptive challenges unrelated to the pandemic have also emerged with the potential to threaten the rule of law. Court professionals must recognize that normal was never good enough. We cannot go back, so instead we must forge a better future while maintaining Justice at the Core of our fundamental purpose. The Midyear will study this important theme and efforts across this nation to sustain justice.

Conference attendees can expect to enjoy numerous thought-provoking educational sessions, organized social and networking events, and a vendor and exhibit show. For more information, including the conference agenda, please visit the conference webpage at <https://nacmnet.org/2023-midyear-conference/>.

This educational opportunity is uniquely designed for court professionals. I encourage you to support your staff's attendance at the conference to develop skills that will enhance your court or that you will consider engaging with your colleagues and advancing the field of court administration by attending the 2023 Midyear Conference.

Thank you for your continued dedication to the judicial branch of government and the important role you play in advancing the administration of justice.

Jeffrey Tsunekawa, President
